G 8

Suppose one day you found a flying carpet I will try to get on it and fly. I did get on the flying carpet. It didn't like it so well the first time. I sat on it for a hour for it to go with me on it. While I was sitting there a man came up behind me and tells me to get off.

That man was Keith he was a mean man he was mean to his flying carpet. Then carpet flew off back to my home. The man found my home. He got his three brothers came in from the window. They got the carpet back from me.

The men got on the carpet and the carpet throw them off. The men were very mad at the carpet. The men came the carpet pick me up and flew away. The carpet was a life saver. Me and the carpet found a new home.

Score Point: 3

This response reflects a limited degree of proficiency in narrative writing skills. The writer tells a story about finding a flying carpet and organizes the response through time. The writer provides some development to illustrate key ideas; however, numerous errors in sentence structure and usage prevent the response from earning a higher score.
